If you are involved in teaching history or social studies or any other area in the humanities, and you love the experience of meeting other interesting people from various backgrounds, please join us on any number of the Saturday workshops listed. Effigy Mounds National Monument, Humanities Iowa, 3M, and a variety of partners in Iowa and Wisconsin have teamed up to present, DEFINING CULTURES THROUGH MOUNDS, RIVERS, FOOD AND DANCE. These workshops will include visiting some of the most impressive and well preserved ceremonial and archaeological sites remaining in the upper Midwest. You will gain an American Indian perspective on the spiritual nature of the landscape, and will hear from renowned local archaeologist and several subject matter experts on what is known and has been learned over the past 100 years of research. Workshops are open to teachers and spouse or guest.

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN THE SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

- ✦ Lunch and snacks provided
- ✦ Admission to Effigy Mounds & other sites
- ✦ Transportation to all activities
- ✦ All programs as detailed in the itinerary
- ✦ Free materials for the classroom
- ✦ 15% discount in bookstore during workshop
- ✦ Credit: regular or recertification credit

 A nominal registration fee to cover transportation and food is required for each individual on each workshop day.*
